Dr. Harold Marioneaux, Jr., President and CEO of AP Max, LLC a student tracking and monitoring system. He is the Founding Director of the Dental Hygiene Program at Thomas Nelson Community College, and former dean of the School of Science at Hampton University, was raised in Salisbury, N.C. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Hampton Institute (University) and the Doctor of Dental Surgery Degree from Meharry Medical College School of Dentistry. Following graduation, he was commissioned in the US Navy as a Dental Officer. After serving for three years, he began his career as a practicing general dentist. In addition to his private practice in general dentistry in Chesapeake and Portsmouth, Virginia, Dr. Marioneaux served as an Adjunct Associate Professor in the Department of Dental Hygiene at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia.

Dr. Marioneaux designed the highly successful Masters in Medical Science Program at Hampton University. He is an active member of the National Dental Association, National Medical Association, and a member of the Board of Directors for SunTrust Bank.

Further, Dr. Marioneaux received the American Medical Association's "Jules Bergman Award" for Outstanding Physician Broadcasting. He has produced his own television show, "Health Street," which was hosted by his wife, Dr. Stephanie Marioneaux. In 2004, he was recognized by the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, School of Medicine for his "outstanding contribution to pre-health education."

Dr. Marioneaux created the web based AP Max System. The AP Max System is an educational monitoring and tracking system designed to elevate student academic performance by elevating grades, raising standardized test scores, and improving time management skills. The system can be used on any educational level.

The AP Max system uses a business management system to monitor and improve student performance. By using business concepts, AP Max can rapidly assess student performance, target their deficiencies, and address the problems immediately. This is a web based patent pending system that provides students, coaches, and teachers with multiple categories of monitoring.

Dr. Marioneaux is married to Stephanie J. Marioneaux, M.D. who is a Board Certified Ophthalmologist in Chesapeake, Virginia. They have two children, Harold III, Ariel Marioneaux.
